NUMB. 719

MONDAY, OCTOBER 24. 1737.

910 727.

LAST Saturday arriv'd the Mail due from Holland, but not a Word of Advice that verifies the late Accounts from Paris, of the Defeat of General Lascey by the Turks and Tartars. That General was indeed disturb'd and harass'd by the Infidels, in his Return from the Palus Mæotis to his Winter Quarters in the Ukraine more than once; but that he suffer'd any Thing like a Defeat, does not appear by any Accounts, except those from Paris; where the News-Writers seem of late to be very much in the Interest of the common Enemies of Christendom.

The freshest Letters from Petersburg which are of the 17th ult. O. S. say, That the Russian Court has received a Confirmation that the Rear of General Lascey's Army was very much harass'd by the Kan of the Tartars, who was in Hopes, by beating the Russians in their Retreat, to divert that speedy Ruin which he saw impending over his Head; but that the Success of his frequent Attempts did not answer his Expectations, for he was repulsed always with great Loss, and has since been deposted by the Porte.

They add, that it has been resolved in a Grand Council at Court, to raise 50,000 Recruits, and to buy 30,000 Horses against the next Campaign, and that Orders have been issued to build 8 Prahmes upon the Don, that are to carry each 44 Guns; besides 40 Gallies, and 400 Double Sloops. Their last Letters from General Munich left him at Pultowa, preparing also to march with his Forces to Winter-Quarters in the Ukraine: And it has been resolved by the Russian Court in Council, to extend the Lines in the Ukraine along the Nieper, as far as Oczakow, and therein to post most of the Troops of both the Armies.

Belgrade, Sept. 30. O. S. The Imperialists have put a sufficient Garrison into Ufizta, and have order'd the Breaches made in the Walls of it by their Cannon, to be forthwith repaired. The Batha of Zwornick was posting to the Defence of that Fortrefs with 6000 Men, but as soon as he heard it was taken he turned back again. 'Tis very probable that no other Conquest will be attempted by the Imperial Forces this Campaign, their Army being ordered to go and encamp at Vallova 8 or 10 Leagues from the Save, and there to remain till the Winter Quarters are entirely regulated. There are certain Advices, that tho' the Turks have considerable Parties about Nissia, yet their Troops are too few to form the Blockade of that Place. The Major-General Count de Bernes having pulled the Save with 900 Foot and 300 Horse, and made an Incursion to the Neighbourhood of Zwornick, was attack'd in the Way by a Detachment of Turks, but he put them to Flight, after having taken a good Number of their Horses, and made the Vice-Batha of Zwornick, who commanded that Detachment, his Prisoner. 'Tis reckon'd that the Turks upon this Occasion lost near 400 Men. The Count de Kirchberg was kill'd at the Siege of Ufizta, and Lieutenant General Diemar was wounded there, as were also some other General Officers. All Advices from that Place agree, that 'tis most advantageously situated, and a Post of Importance. It opens an Entrance into Bosnia, and is in a Manner inaccessible, because it stands on a little but very steep Rock, on the Point of which stands a Tower encompass'd with a Wall. From that Rock the Turks tumbled Abundance of great Stones upon the Heads of the Besiegers. The direct Road from it to Zwornick, which lies by Weitwan, along the Inbar, is impassable for Waggon and Artillery.

Vienna, Oct. 17. O. S. The Emperor's Plenipotentiaries at the Congress of Nimirow, having sent Advice to Court, that those of the Grand Seigneur complained against his Imperial Majesty for beginning the War against the Porte, and that they call it an Act of Injustice, Orders have been sent to the Imperial Plenipotentiaries to make Answer: 'That if ever so little Reflexion be made on the Circumstances preceding the War, it must be own'd that the Emperor cannot with Justice be accused of having infring'd the Engagements which he entered into by the Treaty of Passarowitz; because his Imperial Majesty for 14 Months together, propos'd his Mediation to the Porte, without Success, for restoring its Peace with Russia: That during this, and before the Emperor's Army was assembled, the Turks committed Hostilities on the Frontiers of Croatia, and made Incursions upon the Territories of his Imperial Majesty, whose Subjects were, for that Reason, oblig'd to fly for Refuge to the Provinces under the Dominion of Venice: That the Porte, therefore, are to blame for the Breach of the Treaty of Passarowitz. That, moreover, though the Grand Seigneur was thereby oblig'd to pay the Emperor 80,000 Hungarian Florins per Annum for several Years, yet this Sum was never paid.'

Our Archbishop the Cardinal de Collonitz having presented a Memorial to the Emperor, concerning the Increase of the Protestants in the Hereditary Dominions of the House of Austria, his Imperial Majesty has appointed Commissioners to inquire whether there are any Consequences to be apprehended from it which ought to be prevented. Two of these Commissioners are the Count de Khevenhuller, Governor of this City, and Father Peickhard, a Jesuit, famous for his Sermons, and especially those which he has made on Account of the present War.

The Count de Khevenhuller, the Velt Marshal, is actually incamp'd with the Troops under his Command near Orsova, and the Turks who pursued him hotly for several Leagues are retired to Timock. The Loss which the Generals and other Officers sustained in their Equipage in the last Battle with the Infidels near that Place, is not so considerable as it was at first apprehended. Several of their Servants left to watch the Baggage, who retir'd to the Mountains in the Beginning of the Action, have since rejoind'd the Army with a great many Mules and Pack-horses laden, that they took along with them. All the Vessels that were upon the Danube, between Orsova and Widdie, had the good Luck to escape at the Approach of the Turkish Saicks, except the St. Charles Man of War, which not being able to follow them, was attack'd by the whole Flotilla of the Turks, against which the Commander defended himself for several Days with extraordinary Bravery: But we are in some Pain for this Ship, because the Turks have erected a Battery on the Shore of the Danube, from whence they cannonade it with Fury.

There's Advices, by the Letters from Petersburg, that the Czarina has received a Letter from Kouli Kan the new Sophy of Persia, whereby he gave her fresh Assurances of his Intention to preserve the good Harmony subsisting between the two Crowns: That he will never furnish the Grand Seigneur with any Troops to act against her Imperial Majesty, directly or indirectly; but on the contrary, inviolably observe the Treaty he lately concluded with her: And he concludes with his Wish, that the Arms of the Emperors may be always prosperous in their Undertakings.

S. from Hanover tell us, that the Duke of Saxe Gotha having lately received several Expresses from his Britannick Majesty and the Prince of Wales, was expected there very soon in his Way to England: That the Count de Platten is return'd from Paris, where he has been to visit his Sister the Countess of St. Florentine.

luckily calling out of the Window to know what she wanted, they only took her Short Cloak, and run away: She crying Stop Thief, the Watchman knock'd one of them down, and secur'd him; who being next Morning carry'd before Sir Richard Brocas, was by him committed to Newgate.

Whereas many Inconveniences have attended the former manner of supplying the Kingdoms of England and Ireland with Pyrmont Water; particularly, the Water frequently lay long in the Merchants Hands at Bremen before transported to England, and afterwards yet longer in the Possession of the Sellers in London before sold: so that sometimes, before it came to the Drinkers Hands, it would be a Year old, or upwards. Moreover I have detected Persons filling Bottles (marked with a Star, like those in which I used to fill the Pyrmont Waters) at a common Spring, in order to transport and impose them upon the Publick, for the true Waters of Pyrmont. And further, to my certain Knowledge, great Quantities of false Waters were purposely filled in this Country, and imposed last Year on the Publick designedly, by some Traders in England, in order to prejudice this Fountain, and to the Detriment and Disappointment of the Drinkers. And on the other hand, being well assured of the Integrity of Mr. EYRE, sworn Purveyor of all Mineral Waters to their Britannick Majesties and being an Eye-Witness of the Improvements he has made in filling these Waters, whereby they are now transported in greater Perfection: Therefore I do appoint him, jointly with my Brother JOHN-HENRY REISENER, to transport into England and Ireland the said Waters, which shall be sent them from time to time, and be sold by them only, or by such as they shall appoint, by which Method the Dominions of his Britannick Majesty will be constantly supplied with FRESH PYRMONT WATER, and the foregoing Inconveniences be in some measure prevented: And for a further Caution, all the Bottles filled with the said Water will have the Arms of his Highness the Prince of Waldeck impressed on the Side, agreeable to a Patent granted them by his Highness for that Purpose; and all such as are not thus marked, agreeable to the above Impression, are not to be depended on to be the true Waters of Pyrmont.

Pyrmont, Mar. 30. CHRISTIAN-ULRICH REISENER, Master of the Pyrmont Wells.

THESE are to certify, That Mess. JOHN-HENRY REISENER and HENRY EYRE have caused to be filled, in their Presence, 34,113 Bottles of Pyrmont Water, which Water was filled in a good Season, and when it was in its utmost Perfection, and was corked, wired down, and secured by an excellent Composition, after an improved Method.

Pyrmont, May 26. D. JOHN PHILIP SEIP, Counsellor and Physician to his Highness the Prince of Waldeck at Pyrmont.

These WATERS are sold at Mr. EYRE's Mineral Water-Warehouse, near Temple-Bar.

Where also are constantly sold the following Mineral Waters, viz.

ISPA, BORNE, BATH, SCAR-
SELTERS, HOLT, BRISTOL, BORO'

N. B. Mr. EYRE employs his whole Time in attending and filling the several Waters, particularly those of Pyrmont and Spa.
